

DR. ALI GRIFFITH.

A published author, transformational speaker and a startup business coach for women, she has dedicated her career to helping women to start profitable businesses and create wealth.

Her proven path to profitability— laser clarity, systems and sales—takes business owners from brand new to badass. With an incomparable blend of business strategy and personal development, there is a depth to her coaching that is unmatched.

An audiologist and speech pathologist by profession, Dr. Ali is trained to hear people so she can feel them. She supports women in getting to the heart of what they really should be doing in the world, and how to get there. Whether they are wives, mothers or career professionals.

Leading by example, Dr. Ali is building a tribe of won't-stop women who can fight through life's unexpected and exceptional challenges—every day—and live lives that leave legacies.
